Never Had a Friend Like 3D: In Studio Rehearsals

The countdown has begun and we cannot WAIT to see our dancers onstage in 3D's fourth annual year end production. As with any major performance, there are many rehearsals involved to make sure everything goes smoothly. These mandatory extra practices help the dancers understand the pivotal role they play in the story, as well as, give them ample opportunities to rehearse with the full cast. Please make every effort to attend all rehearsals to ensure each student is ready for performance day. These rehearsals will be in lieu of their normal class times. This schedule does NOT affect 3D's First Steps Classes (Bitty Ballet, Tiny Toes, Move n Groove & Lil Crew). If you are unable to attend any of the required rehearsals, please contact 3D at 3ddancetuscaloosa@gmail.com immediately.

TECH REHEARSAL  COSTUMES REQUIRED **

It's the Day of the Show!

When the big day finally arrives, dancers will be well rehearsed and ready to wow the audiences with their performances. Please note the call times for each day. Dancers are normally called to the theatre 1 hour prior to show time. Parents will check their dancer in with a 3D backstage official; however, parents are not allowed backstage due to limited space. An hour before show time, the house will open allowing family and friends to congregate in the lobby of the Bama Theatre and a half hour before curtain, the theatre will open so everyone can find their seats. Please encourage audience participants to be respectful of the dancers onstage. If it is absolutely necessary to get up during the show, please wait between dances before standing as to not disturb those around you. Everyone has been working so hard to wow the community with the spectacular 3D recitals.
