The Stage Where It Happens: ACTs Rehearsals

LOCATED AT 3D DANCE WEARING NORMAL DANCE ATTIRE

The countdown has begun and we cannot WAIT to see our dancers onstage in 3D's sixth annual year end production. As with any major performance, there are many rehearsals involved to make sure everything goes smoothly. These mandatory extra practices help the dancers understand the pivotal role they play in the story, as well as, give them ample opportunities to rehearse with the full cast. Please make every effort to attend all rehearsals to ensure each student is ready for performance day. These rehearsals will be in lieu of their normal class times. This schedule does NOT affect 3D's First Steps Classes (Bitty Ballet, Tiny Toes, Move n Groove & Lil Crew).

If you are unable to attend any of the required rehearsals, please contact 3D at 3ddancetuscaloosa@gmail.com immediately.

Bama Week Rehearsals

It's the week of the show! An exciting time of dancing onstage and getting ready for the big day to show off everything we have learned all year is upon us. Please mark all rehearsals in your calendar as they are all mandatory.

Attendance is essential to ensure every dancer is as prepared as possible for their stage premiere!

Dancers ages 6+ will be in the The Stage Where It Happens practices while preschool dancers will attend all rehearsals for Broadway Babies. Please double-check to make sure you have the correct rehearsals times marked for your dancer. Each practice below will be held at the Bama Theatre; no practices will be held at 3D Dance. Please note: in most cases, we will release dancers as soon as possible to avoid the youngest ones staying until the latest posted time. Dancers will be released after their final routine is rehearsed. The only exception to this will be the Wednesday night Dress Rehearsal. It will run in the exact order of the show.

If you have any questions, please contact us at 3ddancetuscaloosa@gmail.com.

IT'S SHOW DAY!

When the big day finally arrives, dancers will be well rehearsed and ready to wow the audiences with their performances. Please note the call times for each day. Dancers are normally called to the theatre 1 hour prior to show time. Parents will check their dancer in with a 3D backstage official; however, parents are not allowed backstage due to limited space. An hour before show time, the house will open allowing family and friends to congregate in the lobby of the Bama Theatre where they will then be ushered to their seats allowing plenty of time to find seats and visit the Bama Concessions. Please encourage audience participants to be respectful of the dancers onstage. If it is absolutely necessary to get up during the show, please wait between dances before standing as to not disturb those around you. Everyone has been working so hard to wow the community with the spectacular 3D recitals.
